

FROM THE PRESIDENT
Jean Harrow

St George Art Society has coped very well with the relocation venues so far due to Georges River Council refurbishing the roof of the Kogarah School of Arts. On August 2nd we used Carss Park for our Critique by Joe Bezzina, which worked very well.

August 16ⁿ we will be using the P J Ferry Community Hall, Blakesley Road, Allawah for the demonstration by Mellissa Read-Devine.

Life-drawing has been suspended due to the winter period and should resume in September.

Hopefully we will be back in the Kogarah School of Arts for September Critique. Thank you to members for accommodating these relocations...a change is as good as a rest.

Thank you to everyone who assisted in making these changes run smoothly.

We are very pleased to have two very interesting workshops organised for September...see details below.

Enrolment may be online by email, by mail, or in cash at the desk.

SEE PAGE 2 for news of the 2018 Members' Annual Art Show which is to be held on the weekend of November 8,9,10,11 at Kogarah School of Arts

Interested in a Workshop or 2?
September has two excellent options ...

If you begin with the middle tone and work up from it toward the darks so that you deal last with your highest lights and darkest darks, you avoid false accents.
